Furniture Design Is An Expression

Furniture design isn't as much about the furniture itself as the emotions it awakes in the user. We strive to craft furniture that brings some of the tranquility and wonder of nature into your home! From the soaring Rockies of the West, to the watery expanses of the Great Lakes, to the prairie of the Southwest, the styles found in this catalog capture a multitude of feelings!

Our Partnership With Nature

Each style is handcrafted with care by Amish craftsmen in our Lancaster manufacturing facility. We utilize various wood species including walnut, Colorado aspen, maple, and white cedar. The wood is carefully stabilized and cleaned but it remains a natural product. Because of this, you may see some checking and cracking of the logs. This natural process does not affect the structural integrity of the wood.

Built to Last A Lifetime - Or Two

If a workmanship issue appears in our products we are committed to making things right with you. Whether this means making repairs or replacing the product, we will do our best to provide a satisfactory solution. We build these pieces with high standards and quality components, and we believe they will serve not only you, but future generations as well!

APPALACHIAN

Bedroom Collection

Stretching from Mt. Mitchell, the highest point east of the Mississippi, north into Maine and eastern Canada. This diverse mountain range features a startling variety of flora and fauna, including the evergreen white cedar.

This handcrafted collection is carefully created from white cedar logs. It's the song of the raindrops on the damp forest floor and the rustle of the fox as he pauses among the ferns.

NEW HOPE

Bedroom Collection

The Pennsylvania town of New Hope is the site of George Nakashima's home, studio, and workshop. Nakashima is often credited with designing furniture that incorporated the natural character of the wood.

This live edge maple collection features natural edges that provide accented lines against the white of the heart wood. Available with aspen or metal drawer pulls.

DURANGO

Bedroom Collection

The jangle of spurs and the lowing of cows wakes to the country simplicity of the Durango collection. Crafted using genuine timbers salvaged from old barns and offset against the lightly varied grains of rustic aspen wood.

The clean lines and solid silhouette of this collection speak of a sturdy durability. Another nod to the cattlemen of the American West.
